

North America

- Facts
- Area: 8,260,174 square miles (21,393,762 square kilometers) [A]
 - Highest Point: Mt. McKinley, United States, 20,320 ft. (6,194 m) [B]
 - Lowest Point: Death Valley, United States, 282 ft. (86 m) below sea level [B]
 - Longest River: Mississippi-Missouri-Red Rock, 3,710 mi. (5,971 km) [A]
 - Largest Lake: Lake Superior, United States/Canada, 31,700 sq. mi. (82,103 sq. km) [A]
 - Largest Country: Canada, 3,855,101 sq. mi. (9,984,670 sq. km) [C]
 - Largest Urban Concentration: Mexico City, Mexico, and New York City, United States [D]

Sources and notes:
 [A] World Almanac, 2006
 [B] World Factbook, CIA, 2007
 [C] Natural Resources Canada
 [D] imprecise data prevents selecting one over the other—common estimates for both are 18 million plus; high estimates for both are around 22 million

Nations of the Lesser Antilles

Country	Capital	Country	Capital
Antigua and Barbuda	St. John's	St. Vincent and the Grenadines	Kingstown
St. Kitts and Nevis	Basseterre	Grenada	St. George's
Dominica	Roseau	Trinidad and Tobago	Port-of-Spain
St. Lucia	Castries
Barbados	Bridgetown

